Pew Sheet 19th July 2020

ST EDWARD'S with be OPEN for Private Prayer this SUNDAY from 10.30am until 11.30am

The readings and homily for this Sunday can be found here: Sunday Readings and Homily

Church Opening:

We will also be open between 10:30 and 11:30am on Sunday 26th July for Private Prayer.
Our first service will be on Sunday 16th August at 10:30am when we will have shortened Eucharist.

Please note:

- Track and trace – everyone attending the church will be required to give contact details, to be used for track and trace, which will be destroyed after 21 days
- Hand sanitisers will be available at the entry and exit point—the south door
- The building will have been cleaned and aired beforehand
- Guidance will be given for entering and leaving church – a one way system will be in place
- Guidance will be given for where to sit in order to maintain safe social distancing; currently we are limiting the number of people in the church to 30
- Everyone will be required to have a face covering (please bring your own)
- There will be no lighting of candles
- There will be no first aid facilities as we do not have the correct PPE. Emergency services will be called in the event of illness or an incident.
- No books will be issued or used. You may bring your own books and take them away with you.
- Cleaning where people have been sitting will be done when they have left the church.
- There will be no access to the vestry
- The lavatory will only be available in case of emergency

PCC Meeting: the PCC has agreed the Church of England-approved risk assessment and above protocols which pertain to our building. The risk assessment will be updated as necessary. Any comments on how we might better mitigate any risks to you will be welcome.

There is no weekly LIVE message for St. Edwards from Fr Stephen at 9.15 am on Sunday 19th July, but there will be one next week on the 26th July.

Videos of past messages are available on our Facebook page. St Edwards Facebook
